Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sicher et al (U.S. PG Pub No. 2001/0015968).

3. As per claim 1-26, Sicher et al teach an apparatus including a wireless access communication unit a trunk interface unit having a subscriber ports being coupled to a trunk of a central telephone switch, a plurality of subscriber line interface cards each coupled to a subscriber port to provide a loop interface functions to the central telephone switch, a subscriber interface module associated with each subscriber line interface card a radio transceiver to communicate with a wireless cellular communication network using a wireless trunk and a control section coupled to each subscriber line interface card, to each of the subscriber interface module and to the radio transceiver voice and signaling from each of the subscriber line interface cards to package and format the received voice and signaling for the wireless communications network and using the subscriber interface modules to coordinate and control over the air protocols of the wireless communication network wherein the wireless access communications unit routes calls from user stations coupled to the central telephone switch to the wireless cellular communications network in response to a command received from the central telephone switch (see paragraphs 0016, 0017, 0029-0034, 0039-0042).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. (see form 892)

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
